GERMAN ENGINEERING

During the development of a stroller a lot of requirements come together, from design, usability to comfort, safety and quality. To have a better understanding of the consumer needs, we use researches and consumer questionnaires to identify how a product will be used and what a consumer wants from the product. The need for the parents and their baby comes first in the development.

Along with the requirements on design, usability and comfort, our German based development team is making sure also the requirements on safety and quality are met. With 65 years of experience as a premium stroller manufacturer we established a higher internal standard our products have to meet. To test this, as well as the European Standard and GS certification, we use both external partners as well as our in-house test lab., which is officially entitled to assign GS the mark by TÜV Rheinland.

UV PROTECTION 50 + ACCORDING TO AUSTRALIAN STANDARD

Baby and children's skin is delicate and extremely sensitive and must be protected from the UV rays of the sun. Babies should never be exposed to the sun. Infants not earlier than at an age of two. Already a quarter of an hour can cause sunburn damage. Also special sunscreens for babies (min SPF 30) should only be applied to the skin that is exposed directly to the sun. Shade, parasols or sunsets with high UV protection are essential to protect children's skin. Adequate protection covers should be a given.

HEALTHY BABY SLEEP

Good sleep is very important for the early childhood development. Through undisturbed sleeping in the carry-cot or the stroller the baby learns to develop its own rhythm of rest and wake phases. Stimuli and relaxation brings the brain into balance!

When children are whiny, restless, fidgety, perhaps even irritable / over-excited and quickly cry this may be due to too little rest. Basically, children have to sleep to regenerate. How much sleep a child needs, is very individual and often depends on the day form. As a parent, you should create an especially pleasant environment, whether at home or on the go with the stroller.

Rituals and rules are very important for children to fall into a restful sleep: whether singing lullabies, reading stories or always go to bed with the same stuffed animal - imagination knows no bounds here. Enough fresh air is always beneficial as well.

Prof. Dr. med. Dr. Sports Scientists Christine Graf, Chairman of the Sports Medical Association of North Rhine in Germany

How it all began...

More than 65 years ago the brand teutonia was founded near and named after the Teutoburger Forest in North Rhine-Westphalia Germany. Even today the headquarter of the brand is still based here. Since then teutonia is known for a First Class pushchair experience. True to the motto First Class for the little ones the first teutonia stroller was developed by a proud uncle Gustav Lüdeking, who wished to have a special stroller for his first nephew. With focus on style and comfort the young uncle got to work and designed a stroller with a lot of care and attention to detail. Even today these values reflect the heart of the teutonia brand. Coupled with the German tradition of quality and exceptional craftsmanship, we are proud to still offer first class stroller experience for child and parent over 65 years later.
